Uro-Gynae radiological study day
Thursday 25 February 2016 at the Royal Armouries Museum, Leeds

Meeting organiser: Dr Harry Bardgett, Bradford Royal Infirmary and Dr Alison Bradley, University Hospital of South Manchester

5 RCR CPD credits awarded

09:30 Registration

09:45 Welcome and introduction
Harry Bardgett and Alison Bradley

09:55 College Welcome

10:00 Current role of radiology in stone disease
Julian Keanie, Consultant Radiologist, Scottish Lithotripter Centre

10:30 Radiology of urinary tract stones – what does the Endo-urologist want to know?
Graham Young, Consultant Endo-Urologist, University Hospital of South Manchester

11:00 The myriad presentation of IgG4-related disease – more than just retroperitoneal fibrosis
George Webster, Consultant Gastroenterologist, University College London

11:30 Coffee

12:00 What should we really do with adnexal cysts instead of just repeating the ultrasound in 3 months
Moji Balogun, Consultant Radiologist, Birmingham Women’s Hospital

12:30 MRI of the prostate, where we are now, where we should be now and where might we be in five years time
Andrew Thrower, Consultant Radiologist, Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Retroperitoneal sarcomas: diagnosis and what to do next
Christina Messiou, Consultant Radiologist, Royal Marsden Hospital

14:30 Update on the imaging and management of ovarian cancer
Suzie Bonington, Consultant Radiologist, Christie Hospital
Tea

15:20 Imaging the acute abdomen in pregnancy
   Part 1: Radiation risk and GI disorders
   Damian Tolan, Consultant Radiologist, Leeds Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust
   Part 2: Painful hydronephrosis – baby or stone?
   Harry Bardgett, Consultant Radiologist, Bradford Teaching Hospitals Foundation Trust

16:00 Radiological characterisation of small renal lesions – from Bosniak to biopsy
   Alison Bradley, Consultant Radiologist, University Hospital of South Manchester

16:30 Meeting closes