

Clinical Oncology in East Anglia

Links to CRUK Cambridge Centre, which is a dynamic collaboration of researchers, clinicians and pharmaceuticals

Extensive training opportunities to become world-leaders in Oncology

Unique, flexible programme to suit your personal preferences

Career opportunities

- ◆ A strong track record in supporting out-of-programme experience
- ◆ Funded research posts in Cambridge for MD and PhD linked to Cambridge Biomedical Campus

Training courses

- ◆ Protected attendance at the ICR MSc course in London
- ◆ A rolling program of funded regional study days
- ◆ Preferential access to national and international courses run from our region
- ◆ Access to the internationally renowned e-learning platform Cambridge Cancer Medicine Online

Work-life balance

- ◆ East Anglia is the perfect place to be successful in work and in life
- ◆ Flexible training programme which meets your personal needs and preferences
- ◆ Relaxing, vibrant East Anglia with easy access to beaches and historic sights
- ◆ Excellent transport links

Dr Deborah Gregory

Training Program Director

@ Deborah.gregory@addenbrookes.nhs.uk

Dr Raj Jena

Academic training lead

@ rjena@nhs.net

Why don't you check out our website ?

www.cambridgecancercentre.org.uk

